ORDER:

In the reference 5th read above, the Commission Secretary, APERC has informed that, as per the Clause No. 21(b) of the Regulation No.3 of 1999 the scale of pay of the Officers and Staff of the Commission shall be revised at par with the Officers of corresponding grade /scale under GOI. Clause no. 21(c) of the said Regulations stipulates that the officers and staff of the Commission shall be entitled to DA etc., as admissible to corresponding grade of officers/staff under the GOI. The GOI have accepted the recommendations of 6th pay Commission and issued orders affecting the pay structure on the employees of GOI. As per the orders of GOI, 40% of the arrears are to be paid during the current year and 60% is to be paid during the next Financial Year. Accordingly an amount of Rs.45 lakhs and Rs.68 lakhs would be required during the current and next Financial Years respectively. Hence, the Commission is required the additional budget of Rs.85 lakhs during the FY 2008-09 (i.e., Rs.45 lakhs towards the 40% of arrears payable during the FY 2008-09 as per the orders of GOI and Rs.40 lakhs towards the recurring expenses during current FY 2008-09) for meeting the pay arrears arising out of pay revision which is due from 01.01.2006 to the Officers and Staff of the Commission, as the same was not accommodated in the Budget Proposals for 2008-09. He has therefore requested the Government to sanction an Additional funds of Rs.85 Lakhs during the FY 2008-09, for meeting the one time payment of arrears to the extent of 40% and enhancement in the salary bill from the month of September,2008 on account of pay revision.

2. The Government, after careful consideration of the matter, hereby accord sanction to APERC to incur Additional expenditure of Rs.85 Lakhs under Grants-in-Aid -311 towards salaries, for one time payment of arrears to the extent of 40% and enhancement in the salary bill from the month of September,2008 on account of pay revision during the FY 2008-2009.
